

VERMONT NEWS.

Diocesan Convention at Burlington.

The 17th annual convention of the diocese of Vermont met in St. Paul's church at Burlington, last week Tuesday and Wednesday. The convention was presided over by Rt. Rev. A. C. Hall, bishop of the diocese. At the Tuesday morning session the bishop read his fourth triennial charge, "The Sacrament of Our Lord's Body and Blood," which is in print for general distribution throughout the diocese. At the close of this service a business session was held, at which Rev. Charles B. Carpenter of Burlington was chosen secretary and Rev. Charles S. Lewis of Woodstock was appointed assistant secretary. Rev. Dr. Bliss read the annual report of the standing committee of the diocese. The report of F. S. Platt of Poulton, auditor of trust funds, was read by George Briggs of Montpelier. The report showed that all of the funds held for the diocese amounted to $320,499.47.

The report of the trustees of the diocese, presented by E. P. Gilson of Rutland, showed the income for the year to have been $10,891.57 which with undivided interest of $7,050.25 to June 1906 amounts to $17,941.82. The total disbursements were $9,626.33, leaving a balance of $8,315.49.

The following standing committee was elected: Rev. Dr. George V. Bliss of Burlington; Rev. W. F. Weeks of Shelburne; Rev. S. H. Watkins of St. Albans; C. E. Parker of Vergennes; E. J. Ormsbee of Brandon and George Briggs of Montpelier.

Bishop Hall delivered his 14th annual address Tuesday afternoon. The first part of the address was devoted to an account of the Episcopal acts during the past year. The total number of persons confirmed was 368, a larger number than in any year in the history of the diocese save 1869 and 1894. Bishop Bliss's first year and his own.

The diocese has been sadly deficient in providing candidates for the ministry. In 13 years and a half Bishop Hall said he had only admitted seven Vermont men to deacon's orders, only three of whom were sons of church families. Of the 34 clergymen on the active list only six are Vermonters. He did not speak very encouragingly of the progress in raising the endowment fund for the school at Rock Point. He emphasized the fact that the Episcopal church is not "mindlessly" wretchedly to make war on or disturb any who are honestly content with what they regard as inadequate systems of Christian religion—imperfect (we honestly believe) according to the intentions of our Lord Jesus Christ; we are not bent on proselytism.

These committees and officers were elected:

Missionary committee, Rev. Peter Schuyler of Bennington, Rev. W. T. Forsythe of Middlebury, Rev. F. B. Leach of Richmond, Rev. Joseph Reynolds, of Rutland, C. E. Parker of Vergennes, S. L. Hinds of Burlington and J. N. Woodlin of Rutland.

Sunday school commission, Rev. Philip Schuyler of Bennington, Rev. C. B. Carpenter of Brandon, Rev. C. S. Lewis, of Woodstock, M. D. Chittenden of Fairfax, Prof. C. B. Stetson and H. H. Ross of Burlington.

Treasurer of the Diocese, C. E. Parker of Vergennes.

The invitation of St. Paul's church to meet in Burlington next year was accepted.

Baptists at Newport.

The 98th annual session of the Danville Baptist Association was held at Newport last week, beginning Tuesday evening. About 75 delegates were present. Rev. A. H. Gage, of St. Johnsbury, spoke on the subject, "Are the Young People's Societies Meeting the Changing Conditions of the Age?" Miss Julia G. Shinn, a returned missionary from India, spoke on "The Forward Movement in Missions." Wednesday morning the prayer service was led by Rev. A. S. Gilbert of Passumpsic. Organization was effected by the election of Rev. J. E. Berry of North Troy as moderator, and Rev. O. N. Bean of East Hardwick as clerk. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. J. E. Berry. Principal John L. Alger then told of the work and needs of Vermont Academies at Saxton's River. The afternoon session was devoted to domestic and foreign missionary work. Wednesday evening there were reports of delegates, a question box report of the Baptist Anniversaries at Washington by Rev. A. S. Gilbert, and an address by Rev. Dr. W. A. Davison of Burlington.

The program for Thursday included a prayer service led by Rev. A. E. de St. Dolmas; address, "Christian Stewardship," Rev. E. P. Hoyt of West Derby; address, "The Northern Baptist Educational Society," Rev. H. F. McHale of Westfield; address, "Our Relations With the Free Baptist Society," Rev. A. S. Gilbert.

Woodmen's Log Rolling.

The first annual meeting of the State Log Rolling association of the Modern Woodmen of America, was held in Montpelier and Barre Saturday. The attendance was sufficient to pay all expenses increased and leave a good surplus and the gathering was a very successful one. There was a parade through the principal streets of Montpelier in the forenoon. Following this a business meeting was held in Woodmen's Hall, and these officers elected: President, J. K. Pirie of Granville; treasurer, Oscar Heininger of Burlington; secretary, A. O. Palmer of Burlington. It was voted to hold the second annual log rolling in Burlington in June 1908.

The events and exercises were held at Interlodge Park in the afternoon, before nearly 1200 people. The most interesting event was the competition drill for a $100 prize cup given by J. K. Pirie of Granville. Teams from Burlington, Barre, and Montpelier competed, and the cup was awarded to the Montpelier team, after a close contest. The Daughters of Woodcraft from Barre gave a pretty drill. The festivities closed with a band concert and ball at Barre.

Woman Suffragists.

The 23rd annual convention of the Vermont Woman's Suffrage Association held at Burlington June 14, took strong ground for woman's right to vote. The principal speakers of the day were Rev. Anna B. Shaw, national president, and Representative F. H. Dewar of St. Albans. The convention was held in the evening in the W. C. T. U. temple. In the absence of James Hutchinson of Randolph, president of the association, Miss Mary N. Chase, president of the New Hampshire association, presided. Addresses of welcome were given by Major W. J. Bigelow and the Rev. C. J. Staples, pastor of the Unitarian church. The Vermont Entitled to a Department.

Mrs. Emma E. Pierce, of Springfield, Mass., past department commander of the Ladies of the Grand Army, department of Massachusetts, who has recently organized circles in Burlington and Middlebury, is contemplating organizing a branch circle in Montpelier. There are now five circles in Vermont, at Burlington, Middlebury, Grand Isle, Northfield, and Barre. This entitles the order to a Vermont department and the preliminaries to the organization of a state department are already under way. This order is very strong in the middle west, and in some eastern and New England states, notably in Massachusetts, but until comparatively a recent date has made little progress in Vermont. The order is practically identical with the Woman's Relief Corps, except that veterans of the Civil War are associate members of the Ladies of the Grand Army, and are allowed to sit in the meetings of the circles.

Mahan at Waterbury.

Alfred Mahan, who has been in jail at Bennington since April 30 on the charge of murdering Ethel Mahan, the four-year-old daughter of his brother, German Mahan, of North Bennington, was taken to Manchester last week and arraigned before Judge Seneca Hazeltin in Bennington county court. O. M. Barber, of Bennington, was assigned as counsel for the respondent and asked that Mahan be sent to the state hospital for insane at Waterbury for observation. Atty.-Gen. C. C. Fitts, of Brattleboro, contended for an immediate trial. He will remain there until his presence is required elsewhere by the court, which will probably reconvene after adjournment sometime in August for the trial.

Heat Prostration.

Horace Scott of Brattleboro, a member of the class of 1909, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., employed as a roddman with a gang of surveyors at the site of the proposed dam across the Connecticut, was prostrated by sunstroke last week Tuesday afternoon. He was carried to the shade of a tree by his companions in an unconscious condition and physicians were summoned. It was thought the young man would die, but his relatives were summoned, but after being packed in ice until midnight consciousness was restored and Mr. Scott was taken to Brattleboro Wednesday afternoon in a fair way to recover.

Changes at Seminary.

E. A. Hamilton, who has been chosen superintendent of a group of 39 schools in Bakersfield, Fletcher and Fairfield, has been teacher of Latin and Greek in Montpelier Seminary for six years, and has been prominent in athletics. He was graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1896 and from Boston University in 1900. He is a son of the Rev. Joseph Hamilton, of Woodstock, a Methodist clergyman. He will assume the duties of his new position July 1. Miss Fannie Chamberlain, an instructor at Montpelier Seminary has also resigned.

Pastor Elected President.

Rev. Dr. J. H. George, of Burlington, has been elected president of Drury College, Springfield, Mo. Dr. George has not yet decided whether he will accept the position. During his pastorate in St. Louis, several years ago, he was chairman of the board of trustees of the college but has had no connection with it for some time. Drury College is a Congregational institution of a literary character, with no scientific department and has at present about 400 students.

An Expensive Railway.

It cost $42,000 to construct each mile of the extension of the Berkshire street railway from North Adams, Mass., to Bennington, which was formally opened to traffic Saturday, when the palace car, "Berkshire Hills," ran to Bennington, conveying a party of 15 officials of the road and newspaper men, who were their guests. The cost of the new road makes it the most expensive per mile of any electric road ever built in New England. It runs through a very uneven country, and the expense of making the grades and cutting through the many obstructions of rock was very great.

Prison Work Profitable.

An examination of the records of Washington county court shows that since the new law providing for the employment of prisoners in county jails went into effect February 1, such prisoners have earned $273.75. The expenses for guards, clothing, and tobacco amounted to $74.55, leaving a balance of $201.25. Sheriff F. H. Tracy believes the law has worked well in this county. He favors an amendment whereby prisoners who work well, and can earn $2 a day, shall receive half of this sum themselves, the other dollar going to the state. This would not leave them, when discharged, entirely penniless.

Lieut.-Governor's Advice.

Lieut.-Gov. George H. Prouty of Newport addressed 500 people at the commencement exercises of the Rutland High School last week. Mr. Prouty advised the students not to leave their native state in quest of business ventures, reminding them that Vermont has the seven largest industries of their kind in the world: Marble quarries at Proctor; granite quarries at Barre; organ factory at Brattleboro; veneer factory at Newport; scale works at St. Johnsbury; hide and tallow house at Hyde Park. He said that we have a great amount of energy going to waste which ought to be utilized.

Lightning Causes Fire.

The farm buildings of James Kyle, who lives near Watfield, were struck by lightning during the heavy thunderstorm Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Kyle said just driven into the barn with a load of hay which he had recently purchased when the barn was struck. In spite of the efforts of the neighbors, who came to his assistance, Mr. Kyle was unable to save the barn from the destructive fire and it was burned to the ground. Some of the stock was burned to death and among these were hogs and young stock, with a considerable amount of farming implements. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

New Corporations.

The gentlemen's Driving club of Barre has been incorporated at the secretary of state's office, with a capital stock of $800, divided into shares of $50 each.

The names of the incorporators are Donald Smith, H. C. Leonard, George Straiton, John Trow and C. M. Winch. A new marble company has also been incorporated, the Manchester Marble company of East Dorset, with a capital stock of $200,000. Three of the signers are New York men and three reside in East Dorset. The Champlain Aerie of Eagles is also just incorporated.

Unique Family Reunion.

One of the most unique family reunions ever held in Vermont took place June 22, at Rutland, when eight sisters, who have not been together in 52 years, gathered for a merry-making. The sisters include Mrs. Norman A. Paige, Mrs. C. Austin Moore and Mrs. Mary E. Mason of Rutland, Mrs. Erastus Wright and Miss Hattie G. Smith of Coventry, Mrs. S. W. Bryant of Cornish, Mrs. H. H. Mrs. A. D. Ferris of Rockford, Minn., and Mrs. C. W. Brooks of Monticello, Minn. They are survivors of a family of 13 children, all of whom were born in a house still standing at Westminster. The oldest of the family, age 80, and the youngest, age 58, attended the reunion.

At Montpelier Seminary.

The annual commencement concert at Montpelier seminary was held in the chapel June 17. The graduates in instrumental music this year, with other pupils in the music department presented a pleasing program of 16 numbers. The instructors, Prof. L. J. Hathaway, Miss H. Julia Cross and Miss C. Evelyn Bishop, had reason to be proud of the efficiency of their pupils. The popular event of the commencement week at the Seminary—the annual prize speaking—took place June 18.

Six Violent Deaths.

During 80 days recently there occurred in White River Junction and immediate vicinity, six violent deaths, namely: The death of Alexander Leware caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, May 16, the suicide of Peter Langier at Russelltown, May 23; drowning of Stephen Hall and Jerry O'Meara at Wilder, June 3; and the instant death of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood caused by a runaway horse, June 17.

Orange County Sheep Case.

A suit in Orange county court between two drovers, M. C. Rowell and B. F. Ricker resulted last week in a verdict for the plaintiff of $1,322.36. The case involved the sale of some sheep. The plaintiff claimed that he had not been paid and that he sold the sheep only with the understanding that Ricker was soon to receive a check for $1,500. This claim the defendant denied.

Dr. Charles E. Severance, aged 72 years, one of the oldest and most prominent practitioners of medicine and surgery in Brattleboro, died there Thursday after an illness of three days. He was born in Leyden, Mass., August 5, 1834, and graduated from the Shelburne Falls Academy, and also from Powers Institute of Bernardston, Mass. He attended Yale college and spent several years at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York city. He came to Brattleboro in 1890.

Steven Clark, a wealthy New Yorker, has begun the construction of a hunting lodge at Mount Tabor, which will be built of logs cut on the premises, and the building and road leading to it will cost about $20,000. It will be located in the heart of a fine hunting and fishing district.

Joseph Bennett of Plainfield was taken to Rutland last week to serve a sentence of not less than 60 or more than 90 days for cruelly whipping and bruising his horse. He was given a chance to plead guilty but did not. He went to the village and got a cargo of something stronger than spring water. He became angry at his horse and proceeded to give it a thrashing, bruising its head and injuring one eye.

As a result of Mrs. Hetty R. Green not being a resident of Bellows Falls this year, and paying no taxes there except on real estate the decrease in the town's personal list is $25,000. Last year she paid on $110,000 of personal property. If Mrs. Green's list had stood there would have been an increase over last year of about $85,000.

William S. Healy, a well known business man of Waterbury, received injuries while out riding June 17, which caused his death early the following day. When riding his saddle horse into his own yard it stumbled, throwing Mr. Healy to the sidewalk, fracturing his skull. He was about 30 years of age, a member of St. Andrew's church, and the C. O. F.

The Memphis Medicine company have filed with the secretary of state articles of incorporation. Their capital stock is $5000, divided into 5000 shares. The subscribers are Charles F. Davis and Ara W. Livingston of Newport, Harry H. Wilder, W. F. Robbins and F. F. Harvey of Derby.

For the first time since the early years of the institution the graduating class at Burr and Burton Seminary, Manchester, was composed entirely of young men.

As R. Knoskey was milking on the farm of George R. Brewster of Irasburg last Wednesday night he was attacked by a bull and was severely injured. Mrs. Brewster was an eye witness of the affair. She was so overcome with fright that she died in a short time. She was about 75 years old.

Twenty-one school superintendents have now been elected in the state under the new idea created by the legislature of 1906. A convention will be held by them at Willoughby Lake July 8-20, under the instruction of Supt. Mason S. Stone.

W. H. Jeffrey and B. F. Humphrey, of East Burke, C. W. Coffin of Lyndon, and W. E. Giddings of Springfield, state councillors, went to Boston last week to represent Vermont at the annual national meeting of the Junior Order American Mechanics, in session there.

The body of Arthur J. King of Milton was found early Wednesday morning in a deep hole in the river below the rapids. The man was last seen going to the river with a companion Tuesday evening to go in swimming. His clothes were found on the bank of the river. It is thought that he was taken with cramps. He leaves a wife and a young daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wood, living between North Hartland and Quechee met with a fatal accident, Monday, June 17, when driving to White River Junction. Their horse became frightened by a dog, and ran down a long, steep hill. In turning a sharp corner the wagon struck a fence, throwing Mr. Wood out, breaking his neck, and Mrs. Wood was thrown over the fence, receiving a wound on her temple that caused instant death.

A large steam saw mill and several hundred acres of standing pine timber between Windsor and Hartland were burned Sunday night, June 16. The mill was owned and operated by Fred Foster who had recently installed a quantity of new machinery. The loss is about $10,000 partly covered by insurance. Mr. Foster was out of town when the fire occurred.

George J. Brodeur, aged 36 years, died at the Rutland city hospital Wednesday afternoon following an appendicitis operation. Mr. Brodeur had a wide acquaintance with the traveling men throughout the state, being clerk at Hotel Berwick at Rutland 15 years. He leaves a wife and one child.

During the shower early last week Tuesday evening the cupola of the town hall at Roxbury was struck by lightning, setting it on fire. Hon. Zed S. Stanton, who lives near the hall, organized an impromptu fire company and the flames were promptly subdued.

The graduating class of Troy Conference Academy at Poulton gave the school a tall flag pole and a large American flag. The dedicatory oration was delivered by Walter Paine of Troy, N. Y.
